International Video Conference

My dear colleagues, friends and partners,

Life during and after Covid 19 pandemic and other „viruses“, such as Ignorance and Intolerance, upcoming elections all over the world, upheavals, demands, conflicts and possible conclusions on current and worldwide challenges for all people – these are the topics of the International Video Conference. We will follow the course of the sun with our internationally known speakers. „Together or against each other“ – that is the question of our time, to be answered again and again. This is not always easy and lots of urgent tasks differ from country to country. But there is obviously no doubt : cooperation in our multipolar world based on mutual respect, tolerance, the values of the United Nations regulations is the only and true perspective, isn't it ? We would like to leave the answers, as well as some personal opinions to our speakers from the diplomatic, political, economic and social field and thank them in advance for their very estimated participation and contributions to this conference. And we are sure they are dedicated to the issues of our times. We are looking forward to an open and very authentic look at the current situation.

The world wants a new start after Covid19. Perhaps the upcoming election as Director General of the WTO is an opportunity to do so. For the first time, a woman could and should take on this task. We are not only addressing this question with the conference. We are particularly pleased to have won outstanding speakers from Asia and Europe to participate in the questions of our time. Many common experiences in the past and present connect us as well as for future goals. There is nothing good unless we do it.

We look forward to your participation

Sincerely yours

Eberhard J. Trempel
